Step 1: Position Working Yarn

- Move working yarn (shown in green) behind the left hand needle tip.

Step 2: Insert right hand needle as if to purl

---

- Move the right hand needle behind the working (green) yarn.
- Insert the right hand needle into the first stitch (pink) as if to purl.

Step 3: Move the right hand needle behind the left hand needle

- Move the right hand needle behind the left needle without losing the (pink) stitch or the working yarn (green) wrap.

Step 4: Wrap the working yarn as if doing a knit stitch

- Wrap the working (green) yarn around the right hand needle as if creating a knit stitch.

Step 5: Bring the right hand needle in front of the left hand needle tip

- Bring the right hand needle in front of the left hand needle.
- You should have two working (green) yarn wraps on the needle with one (pink) stitch between them.

Step 6: Insert the right hand needle as if to knit

- Insert the right hand needle tip into the first stitch on the left needle as if to knit.
- This is the same stitch from step 2 where you inserted the right hand needle as if to purl.

Step 7: Slip the stitch off the left hand needle

- Slip the stitch off the left hand needle.
- You should have one (green) purl stitch on the right hand needle.
- You can add an extra tug (down and behind the right hand needle) to the working yarn if the purl stitch is too loose.
- Repeat these steps to continue Norwegian purling.
